

Project Guideline

Project Proposal

Your proposal should explicitly state the problem your project will address, your project's goal and motivation, related work, the methodology and plan for your project, and the resources needed to carry out your project. Be sure to structure your plan as a set of incremental milestones, and include a schedule for meeting them. Normally the proposal is 1.5-2 pages long.

Due date: Oct. 4

Progress Report (Optional)

The purpose of progress report is to help you work at a good pace towards what you have proposed. Your progress report should include:

- Refined problem statement;
- More developed related work;
- Pointer to on-line copy of your code;
- Data you have collected;
- Description of your experimental setup;
- Preliminary results (if available).

Due date: Nov. 15

Final Report

It must be well written, and give convincing evidence of any conclusions you can draw from your project. It must contain the following:

- Concise abstract;
- Problem motivation and design goals;
- Description of your approach or techniques being used;
- Description of your evaluation plan;
- Evaluation results with detailed explanations;
- Conclusion and future work;
- Reference.

Normally the final report is 8 to 10 pages long.

Due date: Dec. 16
